- "Recreational Vehicle" means a vehicular type unit completely self-contained less than eight feet six inches in width and forty-five feet in length, primarily designed as temporary living quarters for recreational camping or travel use, which either has its own motive power or is mounted on or drawn by another vehicle. ## Manufactured Home – Zoning Clearance Permit Accessory Structure Requirements

In addition to the City's Manufactured Home Zoning Clearance Permit:

Accessory structures included on a permit from the Arizona Department of Housing (ADOH)

- Attached structures such as awnings, decks, carports, room additions and garages that are part of the dealer's sales contract are to be included on the installation permit required by the Arizona Department of Housing (ADOH). Separate building permits from the City are not required. The City has entered into an agreement with the ADOH to administer their program within the City limits.

Accessory structures NOT included on a permit from the Arizona Department of Housing (ADOH)

- Attached structures such as awnings, decks, carports, room additions and garages that were not included on an Arizona Department of Housing (ADOH) installation permit and all detached structures such as garages and storage sheds over 120 square feet in size do require separate building permits from the City.
- The City does not issue permits for attached accessory structures associated with manufactured homes until the State permit has been finalized. Until then, all attached accessory structures must be included as part of the State permit.
- One-story detached accessory structures, used as tool and storage sheds, gazebos, playhouses and similar uses, provided the floor area does not exceed 120 square feet, are a minimum of 6 feet away from all other structures and do not contain electrical, mechanical or plumbing systems. Structures are to be located to comply with Zoning setbacks. Exempt accessory structures shall not be installed in recorded easements or in a FEMA flood zone other than X or X (shaded).
- Conventionally framed awnings, decks, carports, room additions and garages shall be structurally independent from the manufactured home. They may abut and be flashed to the manufactured home.
- Decks that are less than 30" above grade and do not support a roofed structure are exempt from City permitting requirements. (Future requests for roofed structures such as room additions or awnings, to be supported by unpermitted decks, may require the deck to be retrofitted to meet code requirements.)
- Lightweight aluminum/metal awnings and carports, that are listed, may be directly attached to the manufactured home. The ICC evaluation report and a copy of the Arizona sealed plans from the awning/carport manufacturer must be provided.
- Any changes to a manufactured home made after the State has signed off on its permit requires design by an Arizona licensed registrant as manufactured homes are not built using prescriptive conventional construction per the International Building Code.
- Manufactured homes are designed systems and are each issued a unique identification number on a HUD sticker at the factory. The installation of these units is permitted and inspected by the State agency. Per the Arizona Department of Housing (ADOH) once a manufactured home is remodeled or repaired it effectively loses its HUD tag and can no longer be moved. Contact the Arizona Department of Housing (ADOH) for more information regarding the HUD tag. 1110 W Washington St # 280, Phoenix, AZ 85007, (602) 771-1000.

The City will not determine between competing interests who has legal right to the permit and associated construction documents.

Licensing Timelines:

Overall timeline for application review is 60 working days consisting of: Up to 15 working days for administrative review for application completeness. Up to 45 working days for substantive review of the application. I also acknowledge by signing this application I authorize any City of Bullhead City personnel access to the property at all reasonable times to ascertain relevant information, including the current condition of the property, and perform any and all inspections.
