- "Recreational Vehicle" means a vehicular type unit completely self-contained less than eight feet six inches in width and forty-five feet in length, primarily designed as temporary living quarters for recreational camping or travel use, which either has its own motive power or is mounted on or drawn by another vehicle. This classification of vehicles shall also include fifth wheel trailers, motor homes, portable camping trailers, travel trailers and all other sport type recreational vehicles and the trailers used to store or transport all such recreational vehicles. Such recreational vehicles shall not be considered as a permanent dwelling unit nor occupied as such.

Park Trailer Accessory Structure Requirements

“Park Trailer” or “Park Model” means a vehicular type unit built on a single chassis, mounted on wheels, designed to be located in a Manufactured Home, Park Trailer or Recreational Vehicle Park and connected to utilities necessary for operation of installed fixtures and appliances.

- ANSI Park Trailer: Unit has a Recreational Vehicle Industry Association, ANSI A119.5-15 certification label. ANSI units can vary from 320 square feet to 400 square feet.

(HUD units between 401 square feet and 671 square feet may also be installed on Park Trailer or Recreational Vehicle Spaces. HUD units in excess of 671 square feet are to be installed using the City’s Manufactured Home Zoning Clearance handout.)

In addition to the City’s Park Trailer – Zoning Clearance Permit:

HUD PARK TRAILERS

- The City does not issue permits for attached accessory structures associated with HUD Park Trailers until the State permit has been finalized. Until then, all attached accessory structures such as awnings, decks, carports and room additions are to be included on the installation permit required by the Arizona Department of Housing (ADOH). The applicant is responsible for obtaining this permit. The City has entered into an agreement with the ADOH to administer their program within the City limits.

ALL PARK TRAILERS

- Attached structures such as awnings, decks, carports, room additions and garages that were not included on an Arizona Department of Housing (ADOH) installation permit and all detached structures such as garages and storage sheds over 120 square feet in size do require separate building permits from the City.
- One-story detached accessory structures, used as tool and storage sheds, playhouses and similar uses, not for human occupancy, may be exempt from permits provided the floor area does not exceed 120 square feet. If there is any plumbing, electrical or mechanical systems installed in the building then a permit for the entire building is required. The placement of the accessory structures shall not block any bedroom window or exterior door and shall not be placed in any required setbacks or easements.
- Conventionally framed awnings, decks, carports, room additions and garages shall be structurally independent from the Park Trailer. They may abut and be flashed to the Park Trailer.
- Decks that are less than 30” above grade and do not support a roofed structure are exempt from City permitting requirements. (Future requests for roofed structures such as room additions or awnings, to be supported by unpermitted decks, may require the deck to be retrofitted to meet code requirements.)
- Lightweight aluminum/metal awnings and carports, that are listed, may be directly attached to the Park Trailer. The ICC evaluation report and a copy of the sealed plans from the awning/carport manufacturer must be provided.
- Any changes made to a Park Trailer requires design by an Arizona licensed registrant as park Trailers are not built using prescriptive conventional construction per the International Building Code.
